

The observatory on interoperability

Enables sharing best practices on interoperability in Europe

Encourages the establishment and development of National Interoperability Frameworks (NIFs)

Informs on the modernisation of the EU public sector

Provides an overview of interoperability and eGovernment activities in European countries

An annual State of Play Report

A summary of interoperability evolution in Europe

NIFO factsheets

Latest interoperability policies and initiatives in the EU

A comparison of NIFs according to their alignment, implementation and monitoring

35 eGovernment factsheets

A comprehensive overview of eGovernment initiatives in European countries

Insight into several countries' approach to interoperability

Countries' NIF analytical models

Support

Advice on drafting a National Interoperability Framework

Who uses it?

EU public administrations & European Commission

National experts and policy officers

The ICT industry

What's next?

A unique entry point to interoperability results contributing to the modernisation of European public administrations including those related to the implementation of the revised European Interoperability Framework (EIF)

Keep informed by regularly checking NIFO community updates.